Customer Reviews

This collection is full of five different books about love, family, forgiveness and much more. Each author has their own unique style. They each bring their own personalities into their stories. Some novels/novellas you may enjoy better than others, however they are all good reads. I was given a copy of this collection from the publisher for my honest opinion. The Heiress's Courtship - Liberty Judd has no desire to marry whomever her father chooses. She is content to live in Hillsdale, attend college and never return to Chicago and all the pomp that goes with it. However when the one man she can not forget shows up in her town will she be able to forgive him for breaking her heart years ago? Will she be able to keep her heart from breaking again? What is it God is trying to teach her? Gerrett Divine has no problem doing what is expected of him, even if it is to marry someone he does not love. Yet when a train wreck leaves him in the one town that Liberty now lives can he make amends with her? The Liberty she has grown up to be is so much more than what he remembers. While God is working on him what is he feeling for Liberty. I enjoyed the dialogue and difficulties they face in following their heart and honoring their parents. Serving With Love - Katie is just trying to stay hidden in plain sight, while trying to find evidence to prove her innocence. She is a determined, dependent woman who is not looking for love. But when the handsome ranger continues to show up is he investigating her or is he truly interested in her. Ward is a handsome Texas Ranger just needing a place to heal. When he bumps into the beautiful Katie he wonders if she is just shy or is she hiding something.
