My kids are 7 and 5, and they have been awaiting the paper edition of Baby Zeke 9 since cruising through the first 8 books. We've followed through the journey of Otis, Zeke, Harold, Bob, and Zeb through their many perils, and with each book there is more action. This book focuses on a war with Herobrine, the main villain of the series, and therefore it had more war and killing language/scenes than the first 7 books did. Book 8 had a lot of battling as well, and it has all been leading up to this more epic battle. The language and banter between our favorite characters seemed to change a little in this book - we missed some of the funnier interactions between the chickens and zombies as well as Otis's craziness, and it focused a lot on sadder or more perilous scenes. That was a little disappointing to me as a parent, but my kids did not complain, although the language lost my 5 year old a little more. Overall, this was a good end to the series, though. It tied up a lot of the storylines and wrapped up Zeke's autobiography. We are sad to see his story end, but hopefully will see more of Otis and Bob and Harold soon! As a side note, my boys Kai and Noah would absolutely love to be in one of your upcoming books, Dr Block!

This book is probably my fav, dr block thx for including my name (jackson) in the book. You are a really good author and i hope your next series comes out soon (maybe a collab with cube kid or crafty nicole would be cool.) Hope you can be as sucessful as this on your next series! Warm wishes, Jax/Blaze7381

I think you added my suggestion onto book 9, maby hou didn't . I hadn't read the book yet because it wasn't free so please make it free one day. by the way i noticed someone named jackson was happy he was in the book. maby that was my suggestion and his. Finally i have a suggestion. Could you make shadow escape from the end nector in the next book? I also want to be in the tenth book as a friendly player with zeke an Harold . Btw could you put me in the acknowledgements? Thanks, Harrison(nick name in minecraft: Elite Assassin) I'm out. ;)

This is the best Baby Zeke adventure ever! The story was super exciting and it made me think too. It also had moments that made me laugh. It was a very fun book.

It is EPIC and may you please make the next book kindle free? It would be epic if you did Dr. Block!
