Customer Reviews

Kyle, his book loving team mates, and quirky Mr. Lemoncello are all back for something awesome: the Mr. Lemoncello's Library Olympics! Teams of students from across the country will compete, solving puzzles, answering trivia questions, and proving their library skills. Kyle and his team mates aren't too sure they have what it takes to compete against SO many smart kids, but they soon discover that they have even bigger things to worry about. Someone is trying to censor what books are available and books are going missing. Can ALL the competing kids work together to save the most amazing library in the world?!

Escape From Mr. Lemoncello's Library was an extraordinary read and author Chris Grabenstein has created magic again with this sequel! Mr. Lemoncello's Library Olympics is a fantastic love letter to books, authors, and libraries and librarians everywhere! With a pitch-perfect, fresh, and funny voice, and storytelling that zings off every page, Mr. Lemoncello's Library Olympics will charm and enthrall even the most reluctant young reader. The library Mr. Lemoncello has created is the Hogwarts and Disney-World of epic libraries! This wondrous and fascinating setting, from its awe-inspiring collection of books; innovative technology, and wicked cool factor, is just so much fun and readers will have a blast exploring all its nooks and crannies. Grabenstein brings back all the characters readers loved (and loved to hate) from book one and introduces a slew of new, eclectic and engaging characters to enjoy. And of course, quirky, whimsical, irresistible Mr. Lemoncello is as unforgettable as always.
